

Ingrid Yael Jensen
Image Designer and Director of Education
Canyon Salon

Styling hair since 2008, Ingrid Jensen is Education Director, Nioxin Tri-Expert and Re-Invention Enthusiast at The Canyon Salon in Westlake Village, Ca. As one of the region's top stylists, instructor and mentor, she pioneered education and mentoring programs at Canyon Salon. The training programs at The Canyon Salon focus on cutting, styling and high-level, five-star customer service.

Ingrid is among the most trusted stylists in California and delivers unique and impeccable looks based on creating total transformation to internal confidence which translates to the exterior appearance.

With in-depth training from Bumble and Bumble, Wella, Toni & Guy and TIGI as well as a mentorship with the celebrity stylist Allen Edwards, Ingrid takes her awe-inspiring skill, brilliant creativity and vivid passion and translates that synergy into flawless looks for all her clients. Her image consulting is refreshing and custom tailored to the desires of her clients.

Ingrid gives to surrounding communities and celebrates her passion of image re-invention. She works with a team of experts in image consulting and personal re-invention. Her YouTube channel has recently been launched to provide a vehicle to share her expertise and unparalleled talent. Ingrid is a beauty contributor to BE magazine and has been written up in Behind the Chair magazine. Ingrid is a volunteer for the Beauty Bus; she visits clients who are terminally ill styling both the caretaker and the patient. Ingrid organizes and leads fundraisers at the The Canyon Salon to support local schools. She created the "Style-a-thon raising money for the Hirshberg Foundation which supports the fight for a pancreatic cancer cure. Ingrid and her colleagues were sponsored by The Canyon Salon to be part of the Braid Bar at the Thousand Oaks Teen Beauty Expo in 2014 where she had the honor of speaking to teenagers about image, individuality and how to care for their hair. She and a few of the Braid Bar specialists recently were part of the Eden's Journey Success held on October 26, 2014. The Canyon Salon stylists sponsored a Braid Bard and styled hair for the fashion show.

Ingrid Jensen has built a multi-sided career in beauty education, transformation, mentoring and philanthropy. She is a vital part of the world of styling. She never stops learning about the passion of her life.

Ingrid Yael Jensen
The Canyon Salon
3693 E. Thousand Oaks Blvd., Westlake Village CA 91362
(805) 777-1140 – Ingridhairinspiration@gmail.com